A NEW VANITY UNIT TO CELEBRATE THE FASCINATION OF THE JAZZ AGE.

to be unveiled by Devon&Devon at the next Milan Furniture Fair.

Devon&Devon's latest creation, Music, a vanity unit penned by the brand's Art Director Paola Ciarmatori Tanini, is inspired by the exuberant spirit and cosmopolitan elegance of the Jazz Age. With its refined, compact shapes and smooth, fluid lines, Music unmistakably evokes the Roaring Twenties, a period of frivolity, throaty-engined cars, wild dances and dreams of success, as described so effectively by F.S. Fitzgerald. Music expresses a brilliant mélange of these inspirations. Rounded corners, glossy lacquer, a smooth surface and four slim legs that recall the shapes of a vintage piano. The deep black of the granite top, of the wood legs and knobs alternate with the cream nuance of the cabinet of the vanity unit, imbuing this with both classical fascination and glamour. Spacious and versatile, Music comprises large drawers with soft-close doors.

Dimensions: 120,5x55.9x96h cm

Top and splashback available in the following versions: deep black granite and Belgian black marble. Cabinet available in toulipier and beech laminate in the colours deep black, warm grey, pure white, cream, blue violet, red, fango and prune.
